The Scottish Ministers make the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 49(1) and (2)(c), and 52 of the Food (Scotland) Act 2015 and all other powers enabling them to do so.

The Scottish Ministers have had regard to relevant advice given by Food Standards Scotland in accordance with section 50(1)(a) of the Food (Scotland) Act 2015.

There has been consultation as required by Article 9 of Regulation (EC) 178/2002 of the European Parliament and of the Council laying down the general principles and requirements of food law, establishing the Food Safety Authority and laying down procedures in matters of food safety.

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Food (Scotland) Act 2015 (Compliance Notices) Regulations 2023.

(2) These Regulations come into force on 30 June 2023.

(3) In these Regulations—

(a) “the 1990 Act” means the Food Safety Act 1990,

(b) “the 2015 Act” means the Food (Scotland) Act 2015.

Meaning of relevant offence, specified standard and specified period

2.—(1) For the purposes of Part 3 (administrative sanctions) of the 2015 Act, as it applies to compliance notices, an offence specified in the schedule is a “relevant offence”.

(1) 2015 asp 1.
(2) EUR 178/2002. The duty to consult under section 50(1)(b) of the Food (Scotland) Act 2015 does not apply in this case as under subsection (3) subsection (1)(b) does not apply in any case in which a consultation is required by Article 9 of Regulation (EC) No. 178/2002.
(3) 1990 c. 16.
(2) The “specified standard” for the purposes of section 42(3) (compliance notices) of the 2015 Act is on the balance of probabilities.

(3) The “specified period” for the purposes of section 43(3) (content and form of a compliance notice) of the 2015 Act is 14 days.

Application of provisions of the 1990 Act

3. The following provisions of the 1990 Act apply for the purposes of the provisions of the 2015 Act mentioned, subject to the modifications specified—

(a) section 30(8) (documentary evidence in proceedings for offences) applies for the purposes of sections 44 (failure to comply with a compliance notice) and 48 (appeal against a compliance notice) of the 2015 Act with the modification that the reference to “this Act” is to be read as a reference to Part 3 of 2015 Act, as that Part applies to compliance notices,

(b) section 34 (time limit for prosecutions) applies for the purposes of section 44 (failure to comply with a compliance notice) of the 2015 Act with the modification that the reference to “this Act which is punishable under section 35(A1), (A2) or (2) below” is to be read as a reference to section 44 of the 2015 Act,

(c) section 40 (power to issue codes of practice) applies for the purposes of Part 3 of the 2015 Act as that Part applies to compliance notices with the modifications that—

(i) any reference to “this Act” is to be read as a reference to Part 3 of the 2015 Act, as that Part applies to compliance notices,

(ii) any reference to a “food authority” is to be read as a reference to an enforcement authority,

(d) section 49(3) to (5) (form and authentication of documents) applies for the purposes of sections 42 (compliance notices) and 47 (withdrawal of a compliance notice) of the 2015 Act with the modifications that any reference to a “food authority” is to be read as a reference to an enforcement authority,

(e) section 50 (service of documents) applies for the purposes of sections 42 (compliance notices) and 47 (withdrawal of a compliance notice) of the 2015 Act with the modification that any reference to “this Act” is to be read as a reference to Part 3 of the 2015 Act as that Part applies to compliance notices.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Part 3 of the Food (Scotland) Act 2015 (“the 2015 Act”) provides for the creation of compliance notices in relation to specified offences under food legislation. These regulations specify relevant offences in relation to which compliance notices can be used.

Regulation 2(1) introduces the schedule. Regulation 2(2) provides for the evidentiary standard to which an authorised officer must be satisfied before they can issue a compliance notice under section 42 of the 2015 Act. Regulation 2(3) provides for the “specified period” which is the minimum period of time in which the required steps are to be taken to cease to commit a relevant offence as set out in section 43(1)(d), (2) and (3) of the 2015 Act.

Regulation 3 applies, with modifications, specified provisions of the Food Safety Act 1990 to section 42 (compliance notices), section 44 (failure to comply with a compliance notice), section 47 (withdrawal of a compliance notice), section 48 (appeal against a compliance notice) and Part 3 generally of the 2015 Act.

The schedule specifies relevant offences in relation to which a compliance notice may be issued under section 42 of the 2015 Act.

A full Business and Regulatory Impact Assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business, the consumer sector and the public sector has been prepared and placed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre.
